G
I'm just a gigolo and everywhere I go,
                      Em         D
people know the part I'm playin'.
Am                        D
Pay for every dance, sellin' each romance,
Am       D                  G
Ooohh, what they're sayin'.
G7                                F
There will come a day, when youth will pass away,
E                         Am
what will they say about me?
        C                    Cm             G            E
When the end comes I know, I was just a gigolo..
Am         D         G
life goes on without me.
