

Across the Borderline Ry Cooder

(D)There's a land so (A)I've been (D)told
(G)Every street is (A)paved with (D)gold
And it's just a(Bm)cross the border (A)line
(D)And when it's time to (A)take your (D)turn
(G)There's one lesson that (A)you must (D)learn
You could lose more than you'll (A)ever hope to (D)find

When you (G)reach the (A)broken (D)promised land
When (G)every (D)dream slips (Bm)through your hands
Then you'll (D)know it's too (Bm)late to change your (A)mind
'Cause you've (G)paid the (A)price to (D)come this far
(G)Just to (D)wind up (Bm)where you are
And you're (D)still just a(A)cross the border(D)line

(D)Up and down the (A)Rio (D)Grande
(G)A thousand footprints (A)in the (D)sand
Reveal a secret (Bm)no one can de(A)fine
(D)The river flows on (A)like a (D)breath
(G)In between our (A)life and (D)death
Tell me who's the next to (A)cross the border(D)line

When you (G)reach the (A)broken (D)promised land
When (G)every (D)dream slips (Bm)through your hands
Then you'll (D)know it's too (Bm)late to change your (A)mind
'Cause you've (G)paid the (A)price to (D)come this far
(G)Just to (D)wind up (Bm)where you are
And you're (D)still just a(A)cross the border(D)line
