

A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square

Eric Maschwitz and Manning Sherwin

transpose to C

That (D) certain (Bm) night, the (F#m) night we (Am) met
There was (G) magig a (C#m) broad (F#) in the (Bm) air (Gm)
There were (D) angels (Em) dining (D) at the (Gm) Ritz
And a (D) nightingale (Bm) sang
In (Em) Berk' (A7) ley (D) Square (Bm - Em - A7)

I (D) may be (Bm) right, I (F#m) may be (Am) wrong
But I'm (G) perfectly (C#m) willing (F#) to (Bm) swear (Gm)
That (D) when you (Em) turned and (D) smiled at (Gm) me
A (D) nightingale (Bm) sang
In (Em) Berk' (A7) ley (D) Square (D - G#m - C#7)

The (F#) moon that (D#m) lingered over (G#m) London
(C#7) town
Poor (A#m) puzzled (D#m) moon, he (G#m) wore a
(C#7) frown
(F#) How could he (D#m) know we two were (G#m) so in (C#7) love
The (G#m) whole darn (D#m) world seemed (Em) upside
(A7) down

The (D) streets of (Bm) town (F#m) paved with (Am) stars
It was (G) such a ro (C#m) mantic (F#) af (Bm) fair (Gm)
And (D) as we (Em) kissed and (D) said: Good (Gm) night!
A (D) nightingale (Bm) sang
In (Em) Berk' (A7) ley (D) Square (Bm - Em - A7)
