

Lay Back In The Arms Of Someone - (Originally by Smokie)

Verse 1:

[G] If you want my [D] sympathy,
[G] Just open your [D] heart to me.
[G] You'll get what [D] ever you'll ever [A] need.
[G] If you think that's [D] too high for you,
[G] Baby, I would [D] die for you.
[G] When there's nothing [D] left, you know where I'll [A] be.

Chorus:

[D] Lay back in the [Bm] arms of someone;
[D] Give in to the [Em] charms of someone.
[G] Lay back in the [A] arms of someone you [D] love. [A]
[D] Lay back in the [Bm] arms of someone;
[D] When you feel you're a [Em] part of someone.
[G] Lay back in the [A] arms of someone you [D] love.

Verse 2:

[G] So baby, just [D] call on me
[G] When you want [D] all of me,
[G] And I'll be your [D] lover, I'll be your [A] friend.
[G] And there's nothing [D] I won't do,
'Cause [G] baby, I just [D] live for you
[G] With nothing to [A] hide, no need to pre[D]tend.

Chorus:

[D] Lay back in the [Bm] arms of someone;
[D] Give in to the [Em] charms of someone.
[G] Lay back in the [A] arms of someone you [D] love. [A]
[D] Lay back in the [Bm] arms of someone;
[D] When you feel you're a [Em] part of someone.
[G] Lay back in the [A] arms of someone you [D] love.

Verse 3:

[G] I know you think that's too [D] high for you
[G] But baby, I would [D] die for you.
[G] When there's nothing [D] left, I'll be with [A] you.

Chorus:

[D] Lay back in the [Bm] arms of someone;
[D] Give in to the [Em] charms of someone.
[G] Lay back in the [A] arms of someone you [D] love. [A]
[D] Lay back in the [Bm] arms of someone;
[D] When you feel you're a [Em] part of someone.
[G] Lay back in the [A] arms of someone you [D] love.
