(Bm) I guess I grew up on an old dirt road
(F#) A'pedal to the metal always did what I's told
(E7) 'Til I found out that my brand new clothes
(F#) A'came second hand from the rich kids next door
(Bm) When I grew up fast I guess I grew up mean
(F#) There's a thousand things inside my head I wish I ain't seen
(E7) And now I just wander through a real bad dream
(F#) A'feelin' like I'm coming apart at the seams

(Bm) Well thank you Jack Daniel's Old Number Seven
(F#) Tennessee Whiskey got me drinkin' in heaven
(E7) An'a, angels start to look good to me
(F#) They're gonna have to deport me to the fiery deep

(Bm) Thank you Jack Daniel's Old Number Seven
(F#) Tennessee Whiskey got me drinkin' in heaven
(E7) An'a I know I can't stay here too long
(F#)'Cause I can't go a week without doin' wrong
(Bm)(Old Number Seven) Without doin' (F#) wrong
(Drinkin' in heaven) Without doin' (E7) wrong
(Old Number Seven) Without doin' (F#) wrong
(Drinkin' in heaven)
(Bm) (F#) (E7) (F#)

(Bm) So I'm sitting as the bar stool it starts to grow roots
(F#) Feelin' like an old worn out pair of shoes
(E7) Tell me what is it I should do
(F#) When I'm swimming in the liquor only half way through (Bm) So I'm watching as his wings spread as wide as could be
(F#) Come on now and wrap them around me
(E7) Cause all I want to do now is fall to sleep
(F#) Come down here and lay next to me

(Bm) Thank you Jack Daniels Old Number Seven
(F#) Tennessee Whiskey got me drinking in heaven
(E7) Up here the bottle never runs dry
(F#) And you never wake up with those tears in your eyes

(Bm) Thank you Jack Daniels Old Number Seven
(F#) Tennessee Whiskey got me drinking in heaven
(E7) Angels start to look good to me
(F#)They're gonna have to deport me to the fiery deeps

(Bm) /// (Old Number Seven)
To the fiery (F#) deeps(Drinkin' in heaven)
To the fiery (E7) deeps(Old Number Seven)
To the fiery (F#) deeps(Drinkin' in heaven)
