```
        A              B
Some girls, love to run around
          D            E          A
Like to handle everything they see
                       B
But my girl, has more fun around
And you know she'd rather be with me

        A                          D
Me-oh-my, lucky guy is what I am
          B                E
Tell you why you'll understand
                                A   F  E
She don't fly although she can__

        A              B
Some boys, love to run around
They don't think about the things they do
                       B
But this boy, wants to settle down
And you know he'd rather be with you

        A                          D
Me-oh-my, lucky guy is what I am
          B                E
Tell you why you'll understand
                                A   F  E
She don't fly although she can__
