

Smile (Key of D)

by Charles Chaplin (1936) lyrics added in 1954 by John Turner and Geoffrey Parsons

D
Smi-i--le, though your hea-a-rt is ach-ing

F#m
Smile, even tho-o-ugh it's break-ing

Bm7 Fdim7 Em7 F#dim7
When there are clo-o--uds in the sk--y--y, you'll get by--y--y

Em
If you smi-i--le through your fe-ear and sor-row,

Gm C7
Smile, and may-be--e to-mor--row

D Bm7 Em7 A7
You'll se-ee the su--un come shining thro-o-ough, for you.

D
Light up your fa-ace with glad-ness,

F#m
Hide every tra--ace of sad-ness

Bm7 Fdim7 Em7 F#dim7
Although a te----ar may be e---e---ver so near

Em
That's the ti---i--ime you must keep on try-ing

Gm C7
Smile, what's the u--se of cry-ing,

D Bm7 Em7 A7 D
You'll fi-ind that li---ife is still worth-whi-i-le, if yo-ou'll just smi-i---ile.

Instrumental - 1st verse chords:

D
Light up your fa-ace with glad-ness,

F#m
Hide every tra--ace of sad-ness

Bm7 Fdim7 Em7 F#dim7
Although a te----ar may be e---e---ver so near

Em
That's the ti---i--ime you must keep on try-ing

Gm C7
Smile, what's the u--se of cry-ing,

D Bm7 Em7 A7 Bbdim7 \ D Gm6 Dmaj7 \
You'll fi-ind that li---ife is still worth-whi-i-le, if yo-ou'll just smi-ile.