

The Lancashire Miracle

Prof Y. Chucklebutty after George Formby

When (G) Joseph he came home from work he asked (A7) Mary what's for tea?
But (D7) Mary said before we eat there's (G) something bothering me.
She (G) said I met a bloke today and (A7) Gabriel was his name.
He said I've a surprise for you but I think you'll get the (D7) blame.

He said you (G) mustn't get peeved but you've just conceived,
and it's (A7) all through the (D7) will of (G) God.
I (C) said have you gone (G) raving mad?
You (A7) can't have a kiddie 'less you've (D7) been with a lad.
Though (G) Joseph want's to be a dad, when I (A7) tell him how it happened this is (D7) gonna look bad.
He said you (G) mustn't get peeved but you've just conceived, and it's (A7) all through the (D7) will of (G) God. (E7) Hey hey! (A7) All through the (D7) will of (G) God.

Now (G) Gabriel he explained to me though (A7) many folk will doubt.
There's (D7) such a thing as a virgin birth when your (G) husband has done nowt.
He said this is a miracle and (A7) you will have God's son.
There'll be a look of surprise in Joseph's eyes when you tell him in the oven there's a (D7) bun.

He said I'm (G) sure you be believed when you tell him you've conceived, and it's (A7) all through the (D7) will of (G) God.
I (C) said that's fine for (G) you to say but if (A7) I tell Joe there'll be (D7) hell to pay.
(G) I was going to say Instead of God's will,
it (A7) must have been that weekend we were (D7) bladdered in Rhyl
But I (G) hope I'll be believed when I tell you I've conceived (A7) all through the (D7)will of (G) God (E7)Hey hey! (A7) All through the (D7) will of (G) God.
